

What is the Residential Medical Discount Program?

Residents who have qualifying medical conditions and billed under a residential rate schedule can receive a 25% discount on monthly electric charges.

Who qualifies?

You or another full-time resident in your home, must regularly use a life-support device as certified by a physician (see qualifying devices listed below); or if you or another full-time resident in your home has a medical condition, certified by a physician that requires special heating and/or air conditioning needs (see the qualifying conditions listed below). The person qualifying for this discount must be a full time resident of the household.

What life support equipment qualifies for eligibility under this program?

Qualifying life support equipment is any medical device used in the home and medically necessary to sustain life or is relied upon for mobility. The equipment must be plugged in and not battery operated. Examples of life support devices include, but are not limited to:

Iron lungs	Hemodialysis machines
Suction machines	Electric nerve stimulators
Aerosol tents	Electrostatic nebulizers
Concentrators	Ultrasonic nebulizers
Compressors	Pressure pads/pumps
IPPB machines	Apnea Monitor
Respirators	Motorized wheelchairs

- * Devices used for therapy, rather than for life support, do not qualify.
- * Oxygen tanks do not require electricity, unless combined with a nebulizer, and do not qualify.

What medical conditions qualify for special heating and/or air conditioning needs?

Qualifying medical conditions that require special heating and/or air conditioning in order to sustain the person's life or prevent deterioration of the person's medical condition include, but are not limited to: Paraplegic, Quadriplegic, Hemiplegic, and Multiple Sclerosis. Other medical conditions as determined by a physician may also qualify.

Will the Medical Discount be applied to delinquent or past due electric charges?

No. Once the application is approved the Medical Discount will apply to energy use charges from that date forward.

I use a life support device and my spouse is disabled. Do we both qualify for the Medical Discount?

No. The Medical Discount is limited to the primary residence of the customer, with one qualifying resident per individual customer.

How do I apply?

You may request an application by calling (209) 333-6762 or by visiting our website at www.lodielectric.com. Part A and B of the application must be completed as follows:

Part A: Customer completes

Part B: Customer requests California licensed M.D. /D.O. to complete

Where do I turn in my application?

The completed application must be returned to City of Lodi (see address on application). Once the application is approved, you will receive a notice confirming that your Medical Discount is in place.

Do I have to renew my application?

The application must be renewed every two years. The City of Lodi Electric Utility Department will mail you a renewal application at that time.

Do I have to reapply when I move?

Not if you let the Finance Department know that you are a Medical Discount customer at the time you submit your request for change of service. If you do not, your Medical Discount qualification will automatically terminate upon your change of service, and you will be required to reapply.

Important Notice:

Although the City of Lodi will make every effort to supply uninterrupted service, continuous service cannot be guaranteed. In the event of a power outage, patients requiring life support equipment are responsible for providing their own backup power system. Program participation does not guarantee service on delinquent or past due accounts.

THIRD PARTY NOTIFICATION
(OPTIONAL)

Customers enrolled in the Residential Medical Discount program may designate a “3RD PARTY” to be notified in case your city utilities (water and electricity) are scheduled for a planned interruption, or are scheduled for disconnection due to non-payment.

The person you designate as your 3RD PARTY is under no obligation to pay your utility bill. The notification will just provide the opportunity for your friend or relative to help you understand the circumstances and avoid being without city utility services.
